The ongoing costs of maintaining an Underlying Fund were taken into account in determining the new minimum NAV threshold which is intended to be commercially viable in the current market environment and in the best interests of investors from a cost and return perspective.

The updates described above do not result in any change in the investment objective and policy of the Underlying Funds, the risk profiles of the Underlying Funds, the level of fees payable by Manulife Advanced Fund SPC, the Underlying Funds or their shareholders, and do not materially prejudice the interests of shareholders of the Underlying Funds.

The fees and expenses incurred in connection with the changes above are borne by the investment manager of the Underlying Funds.

For details of the above changes and general updates of the Underlying Funds, please refer to the latest offering documents of the Underlying Funds.
