Alpha, ARI and Matrix	MIL Jupiter Global Convertibles Fund

Following the United Kingdom’s vote to leave the European Union (“Brexit”), and to mitigate any regulatory impact on the Jupiter Global Fund (the Underlying Fund being a sub-fund of which) upon Brexit, the board of directors of the Jupiter Global Fund (the “Board”) has decided to:

- terminate the appointment of Jupiter Unit Trust Managers Limited, a UK incorporated company, which is currently engaged as management company of the Jupiter Global Fund, and
- appoint Jupiter Asset Management International S.A. (“JAMI”), a Luxembourg incorporated company, as the new management company of the Jupiter Global Fund, to perform investment management, administration and marketing functions for the Jupiter Global Fund as of March 1, 2019.

The change of management company will have no impact on the management of the Jupiter Global Fund’s assets or on the fees, as:

- Jupiter Asset Management Limited will continue to be appointed by JAMI to act as the investment manager, as it does currently. In other words, JAMI will continue to at all times delegate the investment management functions with respect to the Underlying Fund to Jupiter Asset Management Limited. There will be no change in the investment style, investment philosophy, investment strategy, risk profiles and the operation and/or manner in which the Underlying Fund is being managed following this change, and
- J.P. Morgan Bank Luxembourg S.A. will remain the depositary, paying agent and administrator.

The change indicated above would not result in any change to the fees and expenses payable from the Underlying Fund or by its shareholders. The rights and interests of the shareholders of the Underlying Fund would not be materially prejudiced as a result of the above change.

The costs and expenses associated with the change set out in the Shareholder Notice will be borne by Jupiter Unit Trust Managers Limited.

For details of the above change, please refer to the Shareholder Notice and the latest offering documents of the Underlying Fund.
