1. Changes to the Templeton Underlying Funds

According to the notice from Franklin Templeton Investment Funds (the Templeton Underlying Funds being sub-funds of which) dated February 28, 2024, the explanatory memorandum of Franklin Templeton Investment Funds (the “Explanatory Memorandum”) shall be updated to reflect the below. Unless otherwise stated, the changes set out below took effect as of December 31, 2023.

- a) In relation to the pre-contractual disclosures of the Franklin Templeton Investment Funds - Templeton Global Bond Fund, the disclosure relating to good governance shall be updated to clarify that while good governance requirement is technically not applicable to sovereign, the investment team will try to engage with governments on that subject when possible. As a result, the fifth paragraph under the question headed "What is the policy to assess good governance practices of the investee companies?" in the pre-contractual disclosures of the Franklin Templeton Investment Funds - Templeton Global Bond Fund shall be amended as follows (with revisions in markups):

"Sovereign governance is regularly assessed and monitored as part of the process. ~~The~~ From time to time, the Investment Manager ~~maintains contacts~~ has discussions with governments, central banks and other institutions at various levels. ~~On a frequent basis, Certain of these discussions are held particularly around~~ may include governance and economic best practices, and ~~in those meetings the Investment Manager shares~~ its views while also trying to better understand government stances on economic policies and governance, as well as sustainability and social topics to facilitate the investment decision making."

- b) Updates to the information relating to the board of directors of Franklin Templeton Investment Funds, as well as the board of managers and conducting officers of the management company of the Templeton Underlying Funds.
- c) Other taxation, administrative, clarificatory and/or editorial updates.

The changes set out above do not amount to a material change to the Templeton Underlying Funds. There is no material change or increase in the overall risk profiles of any of the Templeton Underlying Funds following the above changes. Further, the above changes do not have a material adverse impact on rights or interests of the investors of the Templeton Underlying Funds (including changes that may limit the ability of investors of the Templeton Underlying Funds in exercising their rights), and the above changes are not expected to give rise to any change in the fee level or fee structure of any of the Templeton Underlying Funds.

Any costs and/or expenses incurred in connection with the above changes shall be borne by the management company of the Templeton Underlying Funds, other than the cost of publishing notice from Franklin Templeton Investment Funds, which is estimated to be approximately HKD120,000 and which shall be charged and allocated to the sub-funds of Franklin Templeton Investment Funds based on the pro rata share of the net asset value of the sub-funds of Franklin Templeton Investment Funds.
