Information herein is based on sources we believe to be accurate and reliable as at the date it was made. We reserve the right to revise any information herein at any time without notice. No offer or solicitation to buy or sell securities and no investment advice or recommendation is made herein. In making investment decisions, investors should not rely solely on this material but should seek independent professional advice.

Investing in fixed income instruments (if applicable) may expose investors to various risks, including but not limited to creditworthiness, interest rate, liquidity and restricted flexibility risks. Changes to the economic environment and market conditions may affect these risks, resulting in an adverse effect to the value of the investment. During periods of rising nominal interest rates, the values of fixed income instruments (including short positions with respect to fixed income instruments) are generally expected to decline. Conversely, during periods of declining interest rates, the values are generally expected to rise. Liquidity risk may possibly delay or prevent account withdrawals or redemption.

Investment involves risks, in particular, risks associated with investment in emerging and less developed markets. Past performance is not indicative of future performance.

Investors should read the prospectus for further details, including the risk factors, before investing. This material and website have not been reviewed by the Securities and Futures Commission of Hong Kong. Issued by Allianz Global Investors Asia Pacific Limited.

Manager's Comments

US equities tumbled over January when investors were spooked by signs that the Federal Reserve might be more aggressive in tightening monetary policy. The steep fall took the S&P 500 Index temporarily into a technical correction, defined as a decline of 10% from a recent peak. Despite a sharp rebound at month-end, the index recorded its worst monthly return since the pandemic-related plunge in March 2020. The tech-heavy Nasdaq Composite Index and small-cap Russell 2000 Index fared even worse, with only a late-month rally saving them from nearing official bear markets (a 20% fall from a recent peak). US bonds fell steeply in January as surging inflation saw investors starting to price in a larger number of rate hikes in 2022 and 2023. The yield curve flattened further as short-dated yields rose more than those for longer-dated bonds. US corporate bonds declined, underperforming Treasuries as credit spreads widened amid a rotation into lower risk assets.

美國股市在1月份大幅下挫，因為美國聯儲局可能會加大收緊貨幣政策的力度，令投資者感到恐慌。標準普爾500指數的急劇跌勢導致從近期高位回落10%，符合暫時進入技術性調整階段的定義。儘管該指數在月底大幅反彈，但仍然錄得自2020年3月因疫情導致暴跌以來最差的月度回報。以科技業為主的納斯達克綜合指數及以小型股為主的羅素2000指數甚至表現更差，僅憑月底的反彈市況帶動避免正式進入熊市（定義為較近期高位下跌20%）。美國債券市場在1月份大幅下挫，主要受到通脹急升導致投資者預期2022年及2023年將會出現更頻繁的加息行動所影響。由於短期債券收益率的升幅高於較長期的債券，收益率曲線進一步趨於平坦。美國企業債券下跌，表現遜於國庫券，因為資金轉換至風險較低的資產，導致信貸息差擴闊。
