Manulife Hong Kong appoints Rockson Leung as Chief Financial Officer

Hong Kong — Manulife Hong Kong has announced the appointment of Rockson Leung as its Chief Financial Officer.

In his new role, Mr. Leung reports to Guy Mills, Chief Executive Officer, Manulife Hong Kong, and Nigel Ke, Interim Chief Financial Officer, Manulife Asia. He oversees the financial functions of Manulife's operations in Hong Kong, including financial reporting, planning and control, capital management and planning, asset-liability management, treasury and other finance-related matters. He also leads the office-support functions and plays an active part in the overall strategy and direction of Manulife Hong Kong. And being a senior member of the Asia finance team, Mr. Leung also provides thought leadership for emerging issues facing the financial functions.

Mr. Leung joined Manulife Financial in 2010 as Deputy Chief Financial Officer, Asia, in charge of the region's actuarial function, including all external actuarial disclosures and capital management. Since 2014, he held the position of Chief Risk Officer, Asia, responsible for overseeing all risks in the region including those pertaining to enterprise, product, market, operations, insurance and underwriting.

Commenting on the appointment, Mr. Mills said: "We are delighted to have such a seasoned insurance-finance professional as Rockson joining our Hong Kong senior management team. With his knowledge of the company and extensive industry experience and expertise, he will be key to contributing to the overall success of Manulife in Hong Kong."

Mr. Leung began his career in Australia and returned to Asia in 1999, holding various positions with ING Asia, including those of Chief Insurance Risk Officer, China, and Chief Financial Officer, China. Prior to joining Manulife, he was the Deputy Chief Executive and Chief Financial Officer of the Bank of China Group Life Assurance Company.

He holds a Bachelor of Economics degree from Macquarie University in Sydney and is a Fellow of the Institute of Actuaries of Australia and the Financial Services Institute of Australasia.
