Manulife launches “Good Employer Recognition with Employees” Reward Programme

Hong Kong — Manulife announced today the launch of its “Good Employer Recognition with Employees” Reward Programme in support of the inaugural Good MPF Employer Award 2014/15 introduced by the Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Authority (MPFA).

Under the reward programme, winning employers who are enrolled under Manulife’s MPF Scheme will receive a trophy from Manulife at a recognition luncheon, and their employees are eligible to receive a one-off bonus unit offer of HK$100 before the end of 2015.

“Employees are the most valuable asset of every enterprise as they are the key to driving business forward. With MPF playing a vital role in helping employees accumulate savings for their retirement, employers can further enhance the retirement protection of their employees by making voluntary contribution or offering them with additional choice of one or more MPF schemes,” said Luzia Hung, Vice President, Employee Benefits, Manulife (International) Limited.

“As such, we see the value in recognizing employers who are exemplary in enhancing their employees’ retirement benefits. We are pleased to not only support the Good MPF Employer Award, but also – through our reward programme – reward employees so as to encourage employers to do more for the retirement protection of their employees as part of their staff engagement,” Hung continued.

The Good MPF Employer Award is a new initiative launched by the MPFA to honour employers who are fully compliant with the relevant legislative requirements and have taken extra steps towards enhancing the retirement protection of their staff. From October 1, 2015 to December 1, 2015, successful awardees may enroll in the “Good Employer Recognition with Employees” Reward Programme by submitting a completed registration form and the relevant supporting documents to Manulife. The one-off bonus units will be credited to the voluntary contribution account of each eligible employee of the winning employers who have registered successfully for the reward programme. For details of the reward programme and its terms and conditions, please refer to the information uploaded to the Manulife website here.
