Manulife promotes Wilton Kee to Vice President and Chief Product Officer, Individual Financial Products, Hong Kong

Hong Kong — Manulife (International) Limited has announced the promotion of Wilton Kee to Vice President and Chief Product Officer, Individual Financial Products, Hong Kong.

Mr. Kee joined Manulife in 2013 as Assistant Vice President & Pricing Officer, Individual Financial Products, Hong Kong, overseeing its marketing actuarial functions. Last year, he took on the dual role of heading up both marketing actuarial and product development for the individual financial products business, in which he played an active part in its overall strategy and direction.

As a key driver in the revitalization of its Hong Kong product portfolio, Mr. Kee has revamped Manulife's products substantially, making them more customer-focused, competitive and timely to market over the last three years. On top of this, he has been instrumental in helping the company build new bancassurance business by developing unique customer solutions for the clients of some of the leading banks in Hong Kong.

According to Paul A. Smith, Vice President and Head of Individual Financial Products, Manulife (International) Limited: "Wilton has successfully launched innovative products to the market to meet our customers' ever-changing needs over the last year, such as ManuSilver Care, a critical-illness insurance plan tailored for seniors. With Wilton's diverse experience and strong leadership skills, we are confident that our individual financial products business will continue to go from strength to strength."

Mr. Kee also has solid experience in actuarial pricing, financial reporting and risk management, both in Hong Kong and Japan. He spent the earlier part of his career in the Asia regional office of a leading international insurance group.

He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Actuarial Science from the University of Hong Kong and is a Fellow of the Society of Actuaries (FSA) of the United States. He has also attained the Financial Risk Manager (FRM) designation issued by the Global Association of Risk Professionals and holds a Certificate in Quantitative Finance (CQF).
